

PRESS RELEASE

TERRITORY

Beaches, Borders and Ephemeral Edges

Exhibition by Liz Lowe @ Lumen Gallery, London WC1H 9RS

12 December 2017 - 2 March 2018

Private View 12 January 2018 6-9pm

Territory is the exciting first solo exhibition by Liz Lowe initiated by her response to Brexit. Lowes' exploration of the beaches and borders of the UK led her to create sand casts transformed into relief sculptures in Bronze, Aluminium and Ceramic. Their ambiguous edges, rippled surfaces and weighty presence are a foil to the transience of natural boundaries. She challenges consideration of similarity and difference, the appropriateness of fixed borders and the futility of imposing the very edges of tide and time.

About Liz Lowe

Lowes' practice encompasses printing, imprinting and casting as a means of capturing and solidifying the intangible. The ability of foundry cast metals and metal meshes to be malleable and fluid then becoming rigid or fragile is the lens through which she contemplates pressing personal and political concerns. Graduating in Drawing in 2015 from UAL, Camberwell School of Arts and working from studios overlooking the Thames, the London Sculpture Workshop and Thames Side Print Studio, she shows work both individually and with the Perhaps? Collective. Visit www.Lizloweartist.com & www.perhaps.onl

Lumen Gallery

88 Tavistock Place

London WC1H 9RS

Lumen is a fully accessible modern architect-designed building, including original sculptures by Alison Wilding. It hosts the gallery, a café, meeting and conference centre and United Reform Church. "All I Really Want is a Cuddle" Lowes' brightly coloured wire sculpture of sixty "hugs" is located in the cloister garden.

Lumen is near Kings Cross station and open 8.00am-4.30pm Mondays to Fridays.
